ANNOUNCEMENTS

NEIL O'BRIEN'S MINSTRELS Will Play at the Davis Theatre on Friday, Dec. 1.

A form of entertainment which has defied all competition for years is negro minstrelsy and in spite of the musical comedies, drama and opera, it still holds its place in the affection of theatregoers. None of the minstrel performers of the past or present have held the affections of the public to a greater degree than Neil O'Brien and the announcement that he and his Great American Minstrels are coming to the Davis theatre Friday evening, Dec. 1, will be received with satisfaction. It is promised by Mr. O'Brien's manager, Oscar F. Dodge that this lin club, consisting of 40 men, will give the chief attraction for Thursday evening. The club have given several concerts thus far for this season and have been received with great favor. On November 10th Miss Alma Gluck was assisted by the Brown quartet in an encore number. Carry the lack to old Virginia, at her appearance in Providence.

Beside the regular program arranged for Thanksgiving night there will be readings and the Hawaiian Sextet will also favor with selections.
The net proceeds of the concert will be added to the track fund of the Norwich Free Academy. Tickets have been placed on sale through Academy students in order may also be secured at Slater hall on the night of the concert. Tickets 50c. Concert starts at 8.15.

ALFRED F. DENNGHAUSEN

TO GIVE RECITAL Famous Baritone Will Sing for Norwich Music Association Monday Evening.
The Norwich Music association, which has planned an evening of English music for its meeting Monday evening, Dec. 4, has deferred that program, in order to give a recital of German, Russian and English songs.
He is everywhere praised by the critics for his rich and poetic voice, his unusual dramatic versatility and strong, even tones.
The program which he has arranged to give more the Norwich association is one of great variety and interest.

PORTO RICAN COFFEE CROP

IS A BOUNTIFUL ONE.

Promises to Be One of the Largest Ever Produced There.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Nov. 22 (Correspondence of The Associated Press).
—The coffee crop now being harvested promises to be one of the largest and most valuable produced here.
More than 3,750,000 pounds of the new crop have been exported during the past two months at an average price of $17.50 per hundred pounds. Stocks of Porto Rico coffee are low and there is keen demand for it. Cuba, Spain and Italy are the principal purchasers.
A shortage of shipping facilities is delaying shipments to Europe.
But for damage done to the crop by a hurricane in August, shortly before the berries matured, it was estimated that the present crop would have been the largest ever produced. It is estimated, however, that about 10 per cent of the crop was lost owing to the storm. It is expected there will be about 10,000,000 and 10,000,000 pounds for export despite this loss.

BULLETIN'S PATTERN SERVICE

Season everything will be found new and strictly up to date and that a production has been provided both as to scenery and costumes that will quite take the wind out of all competitors. For the first part a new and striking stage setting has been secured and though the details of this have not yet been given out it is expected that it will be quite a surprise to the patrons and admirers of Mr. O'Brien and his minstrel company. Among those who will assist the star in the mini-making of this portion of the program are Charles E. Brown, Edward White, Charles Griffin, Steve Weber, Harry Newell and Chas. Hilliard.
Among the young stars appearing are Berkeley, James Barford, Earl Holmes, Joe Andre, Jonathan Hall, Earl Holmes, Paul Lohme and W. R. Pers-by.

Of the olio features there will be of course be a new sketch for Mr. O-Brien himself called "The Jitney Jo-Jo" which the star has written and produced and in which it is said he has found much laughable material in maturing this cheap transportation problem; then there will be new singing and dancing numbers enlisting the services of some of America's most expert dancers, staged by James Gorman, veteran minstrel man and now Broadway stage director. Eddie Rose will be remembered as a fixture with the O'Brien Minstrels, will be heard in a new monologue and for a climax to the program the one-act play, "The Bold Brace Black and Tans," written by Geo.
M. Conan for the Priory Frolic has been secured. The Bold Braces Black and Tans deals with the recent exciting happenings on the Mexican border and is said to be a screaming farce which will cause the entire audience of the company. There will be the usual street parade at high noon and it is promised that the minstrel boys will make a brave appearance in their white suits and top hats. Prices 25c to $1.50. Seats on sale Wednesday at 10 a. m.

BREED THEATRE

Mary Pickford in Hilda From Holland Feature Today - Mabel Taliaferro
Coming Wednesday and Thursday In The Dawn of Love.
Capacity houses at all performances yesterday greeted the exceptionally bill of photoplays that the Breed theatre is presenting. The feature of which is Mary Pickford in Hilda From Holland, a five-part Paramount feature. In this picture Miss Pickford strikes deep in the heart of her numerable admirers and never has she played a more sympathetic role than that of Hilda, the little Dutch girl.
Today is the last opportunity to see the foremost star of the motion picture screen in a picture of such interest and in order that everybody may see this wonderful production the management will have four shows today; matinee at 2:30 and 8 and evening at 7 and 9.
Tomorrow and Thursday the Breed will present the magnetic little star, Mabel Taliaferro in The Dawn of Love, a Metro wonderplay of daring and desperate adventure in five absorbing acts. It is a powerful story between smugglers and revenue officers and the action is laid in a small fishing town.
Miss Taliaferro and the entire company spent several weeks in a little fishing village in Maine for the purpose of making the picture with the churning waves and massive rocks as a background. The result is a swiftly moving photo-drama that reflects truly the simplicity and primitive passions to those who dwell in the open.
This is one of the strongest screen stories released on the Metro program.
The Breed will also present the seventh chapter of "The Crimson Stain Mystery" and continue the most riveting story ever written.
Thursday Thanksgiving day the Breed will give four shows at 1:30, 3, 7 and 9.30 p. m.

BADLY LEAKING SCHOONER

TOWED INTO NEW LONDON.

The William H. Clifford, Which Was in Distress Off Montauk Point.

New London, Conn., Nov. 21.—Badly leaking, and with her pumps unable to cope with the inflow of water into her hold, the four-masted schooner William H. Clifford, bound from Jamaica to Stamford, which raised signals of distress on Sunday when off Montauk Point, was towed into this port today by the fishing vessel Francis Beckwith the tugboat T. A. Scott company of this city.

According to Byron A. Fones, official of the company, the high wind blowing in Long Island sound made it dangerous to proceed to Stamford with the craft. As soon as the wind abated, Mr. Fones started the schooner, which was towed by the schooner, which carries a crew of ten men.

Stamford.—When Frank S. Williams decided that he did not care to live any longer with his wife, Ruth Cleveland Williams, he packed up her belongings in a trunk, put her name on the trunk and then had it shipped from New York to Mrs. Williams' mother's home in Stamford. "I will send for you later," Williams said to his wife, but he never did, according to her sister, Mrs. Williams, who is superior court. Mrs. Williams was granted a divorce.
